United States v.

RHEA D. WICKLUND

ADVICE OF RIGHTS FORM

I have received and read a copy of the indictment or information and understand the nature of the charges made against me. I have told my attorney all I know about the matters referred to in the indictment or information.

My attorney has explained to me the nature of the charges against me, my constitutional rights, and the punishment that could be imposed by the Court upon my plea of guilty, including any maximum and mandatory minimum terms of imprisonment, the effect of any term of supervised release that may be imposed, the possibility of an order of restitution if any financial injury was caused by the offense, and the fact that the court must consider any applicable sentencing guidelines, but may depart from those guidelines under some circumstances.

I understand that if I plead not guilty to any count or counts in the indictment or information:

(a) I would be presumed under the law to be innocent of the charges against me in such count or counts.

(b) I would be entitled to a speedy, public trial by an impartial jury in which the burden would be upon the Government to establish my guilt beyond a reasonable doubt to the satisfaction of all 12 jurors.

(c) Upon such trial (i) I would be entitled to remain silent and no inference could be drawn against me because of my silence; (ii) I could, if I wished, testify on my behalf; (iii) I would be entitled to confront and cross-examine all witnesses against me; and (iv) I would be entitled to compulsory process of the Court to obtain witnesses to testify and evidence to be offered in my defense.

I understand that if my plea of guilty to any count or counts is accepted by the Court, I will give up the foregoing rights with respect to such count or counts and the Court will have the same power to sentence me as if a jury had brought in a verdict of guilty with respect to such count or counts.

My decision to plead guilty is freely and voluntarily made. I have not been induced to plead guilty to any count by any promises other than those contained in any written plea agreement that I have signed, if such an agreement exists, or by any statement that I would receive leniency, a lesser sentence, or any other consideration if I pleaded guilty instead of going to trial. I have not been induced to plead guilty by any force, coercion, pressure or fear.

I am pleading guilty because after discussing the case with my attorney I believe that I am guilty. I am satisfied with how my attorney has represented me.

My attorney has advised me that [s]he does not believe that there are any meritorious defenses to the count or counts to which I am pleading guilty and that after discussing the facts with me [s]he does not believe that any of my constitutional rights have been violated in connection with any interrogation of me or any statement of confession made by me, or in connection with any search of my person or my property, seizure of my property, my arrest or these proceedings, other than as set forth in any suppression motion I have made or joined in. ~~[Cross out if inapplicable: I understand and agree that my guilty plea will be accepted by the court on the condition that I [place a check to the right of one of the following: may ___ may not ___] appeal the denial of my suppression motion.]~~

I am not under the influence of any substance, such as medication, narcotics or alcohol, that would affect my ability to understand the nature and consequences of my action in pleading guilty.

I have read and fully understand the foregoing statement.
